

Please do not implement any changes that would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy law. I feel my time at home, away from work, is too short and valueable to spend it being harrassed by the same telemarketers that stuff my mailbox full of junk. I also feel I pay my phone bill for my use, not to make it available for telemarketers and rip off artists.

Sincerely,

Richard Klenck